"Where ever you are, you are being shaped into the women of God you have been created to be"

"Where ever you are, you are being shaped into the women of God you have been created to be"

Read and complete Mark 2:17 (NLT)

On hearing this, _____ said to them, "It is not the _____ who need a doctor, but the _____. I have not come to call the _____, but _____
_____."

How does this speak to you?

We have been called. We have been chosen. Our lives have been destined for greatness. You have been hand-picked by God. Whether you have just realized it today or you have known for a while, you were getting prepared for today. It is not every day we find out that we have been created to inspire and change the world. It is an awesome feeling to know that your life has a unique purpose. A purpose that you carry to transform lives. What you do with this knowledge may just be the next crucial step you take.

Will you accept the call?

Read and complete 2 Corinthians 5:17 (NLT)

This means that anyone who belongs to Christ has become a _____ person.
The _____ life is gone; a _____ has begun!

We all have sinned and lived unrighteous. If you are reading this today it is because you have decided to follow Christ. You prayed and allowed Jesus to enter into your heart and life. You accepted the challenge to change and be transformed. From the day we born until this day we were being shaped into the woman of God we are called to be. The house you grew up in, the school you attended, your parents. They were hand picked by God. You were there learning, growing and being shaped.

Take a minute to reflect on your life before God.

Now take a minute to reflect your life after receiving Christ in your life.

In this exercise, you will compare the following subjects and compare how you have transformed. This will help you realize how far you have really come along.

Old You

Outlook of life

Opinions of others

How you handle disappointments

How you handle victories

How you wake up in the mornings

New You

Outlook of life

Opinions of others

How you handle disappointments

How you handle victories

How you wake up in the mornings

Self-Reflect

Take a moment and journal what has changed ...

We may make plans

Read and fill in Proverbs 19:21 (ESV)

Many are the _____ in the mind of _____, but it is the _____ of the _____ that will stand.

Read and fill in Proverbs 16:9 (NIV)

In their hearts humans _____ their _____, but the _____ establishes their _____.

Take a moment and write down any thoughts ...

We may have already made plans for our lives but we do not have the final word. Have you made plans in the past but the didn't come to the past? Do you wonder why? The Lord has already established and written our life out. If it is not what He has for us we will be redirected in life.

"A rejection is nothing but a redirection"

We may make plans

Read and fill in Jeremiah 10:23 (GNT)

Lord, I know that none of us are _____ of our _____; none of us _____ over our _____.

Prayer -

Lord, I thank you for creating me. I thank you for being in control of my life. I may not understand today why you have done things but I know you will reveal your plans to me. Lord, I pray that each day I can get closer to you. I accept the call you have placed in my life. Lead my path in all that I do. I will accept things i can and can not change. Give me strength to keep going when the path is unclear. In Jesus name - Amen
